

Responsibilities:

- Present and sell company provided services for client in Asia/Pacific region;
- Establish and maintain current and potential client relationship;
- Identify and resolve clients' concerns;
- Ensure timely, professional communication.

Requirements:

- Experience or willingness to work in sales area;
- An excellent ability to communicate in English (Chinese will be considered as an advantage);
- Possibility to relocate to this region or to have long business trip will be considered as a big advantage;
- Self-confidence, communication, time management and planning skills.

Compensation & Benefits Package:

- Interesting and challenging position within an international company;
- Professional team that will provide full-fledged training;
- Business trips around the region;
- Professional and personal growth opportunities;
- Fixed salary as well as performance-based bonus system.

Salary: from 2800 € (brutto)

Salary comment: We will be happy to discuss the specific amount of your basic monthly salary and bonuses during the interview based on your experience and qualifications.

Jet Maintenance Solutions (Jet MS) is a global provider of integrated aircraft maintenance, repair, and overhaul solutions for business and regional aviation. The company also provides express spare part delivery, cabin refurbishment & modification, engine management, and aircraft conversion solutions for a wide range of other business and regional jets.