Intradco Global combines over 30 years of animal transport experience with unrivalled global coverage, making it a market leader for equine, livestock and conservation project shipments. The UK-based company's bespoke services have seen it become a trusted partner of horse shippers, owners and trainers - with grooms accompanying the animals to ensure their comfort and wellbeing during flights. Intradco leases custom-designed air stalls and penning equipment, making it a favourite with many of the world's leading airlines. The team's expertise in accommodating unusual species also makes them popular with animal welfare organisations relocating endangered animals.
