To give you a flavour of some of the brands you'll be writing for, there's FL Technics, Avion Express, Klasjet, Chapman Freeborn, amongst many others.

What will the job involve?

- Creating copy for a number of aviation companies.
- Delivering high-quality content, primarily press releases, op-eds, and other long-form materials.
- Conducting research and gathering information to support content development.
- Writing pieces that engage and deliver tailor-made messaging for specific target audiences.
- Developing and maintaining different brand voices and tones, ensuring that all communication is consistent.

What do we expect from you?

- Degree in Journalism, Communications, English, or other related field.
- Native-level of English is a must.
- 2+ years of experience as a Copywriter/Content Writer in public relations or communications, preferably in a corporate or agency setting.
- Strong proven writing, editorial, and reviewing skills.
- Experience with writing for different audiences and knowledge of how to adapt your copy appropriately.
- Experience in aviation would be a strong added value.

What do we offer?

- Exciting and diverse projects in one of the world's most glamorous and dynamic industries.
- A truly international and multicultural working environment.
- Hybrid working opportunities.
- Complementary Health insurance package.
- Discounts and special offers from various partners.
