

NEW OPPORTUNITIES IN PUNTA CANA!. PUNTA CANA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC (THE)

FL Technics is opening Caribbean horizons!

We are happy that the construction of our modern hangar in vibrant Punta Cana is underway. Nestled amidst the stunning landscapes of Punta Cana, our upcoming hangar facility will boast cutting-edge technology, advanced equipment, and meticulous attention to every aircraft that lands at our door. With a commitment to sustainability and efficiency, the facility will set new standards for aircraft maintenance in the region.

As we prepare to launch our operations in Punta Cana, we are excited to announce that we will soon begin recruiting talented individuals to join our team there! From skilled technicians to seasoned engineers, we will seek passionate professionals who share our vision of pushing boundaries and exceeding expectations.

With every endeavor, we not only create growth opportunities, but also embrace the challenges with enthusiasm and embark on a journey towards a brighter tomorrow. Join us in shaping the aviation future!
