

CABIN CREW FOR BOEING 737. VILNIUS, LITHUANIA

KlasJet is looking for professional and service-oriented Cabin Crew to join our Boeing 737 operations. If you are passionate about aviation, hospitality, and delivering a premium passenger experience, this role offers the opportunity to work in a dynamic international environment while operating worldwide.

Suitable Cabin Crew shall:

- Hold a valid EASA Cabin Crew Attestation
- Have experience operating as Boeing 737 Cabin Crew
- Demonstrate strong customer service skills, preferably with upper-middle or premium class passengers
- Hold a valid Cabin Crew Medical Certificate
- Be fluent in English
- Eligible to live and work in the EU

A suitable Cabin Crew member has:

- A strong motivation to operate to diverse destinations around the globe
- A proactive, “can-do” attitude and high level of personal responsibility

We offer suitable Cabin Crew:

- The opportunity to learn and deliver both luxury service and the highest safety standards on board
- A challenging position in an international and fast-changing aviation environment
- A supportive and professional team with comprehensive customer service training
- Competitive remuneration consisting of fixed and variable components
- Remuneration paid on time
- Permanent service provision contracts
- Block hour payment system
- 10 or 8 consecutive days off
- Professional training and development
- Accommodation during duty periods
- Growth opportunities within Training and other operational departments
- Travel tickets provided to and from the place of duty
- Worldwide operations in a multicultural environment

Only selected candidates will be contacted.
