FREELANCE CABIN CREW INSTRUCTORS. BARCELONA, SPAIN

We are BAA Training, an aviation training organization committed to delivering high-quality cabin crew training and ensuring the highest standards of aviation safety and professionalism.

We are currently looking to expand our network of experienced and qualified Cabin Crew Instructors, based in Barcelona, Spain, on a freelance basis.

Our Cabin Crew Instructors:

- Deliver theoretical and practical training to cabin crew members in accordance with applicable aviation regulations, training programmes and organizational standards;
- Conduct training in Safety and Emergency Procedures (SEP), including the use of safety and emergency equipment (ESET);
- Provide engaging and effective instruction, adapting teaching methods to different learning styles and participants' needs;
- Assess trainees' knowledge and practical skills, provide constructive feedback and evaluate training performance;
- Maintain accurate training records and complete all required training documentation;
- Keep up to date with relevant aviation regulations, industry standards and training methodologies.

To be successful, you should have:

- Senior Cabin Crew Experience: At least 3 years of documented experience as a Senior Cabin Crew Member;
- Train-the-Trainer Qualification: A valid Train-the-Trainer certificate or equivalent documentation demonstrating knowledge of instructional techniques and teaching methodologies;
- SEP/ESET Instructor Qualification: A relevant instructor certificate or documented evidence of training and qualifications in Safety and Emergency Procedures (SEP) and Emergency and Safety Equipment (ESET);
- English Language Proficiency: Documented English language proficiency at CEFR B2 level or higher;
- Strong communication and presentation skills;
- The ability to work independently and deliver training in a professional and engaging manner;
- Availability to work on a freelance basis.

Additional qualifications – an advantage:

- CRM Instructor Certificate – required for candidates interested in delivering Crew Resource Management (CRM) training;
- First Aid instructor qualification or relevant certification;
- Any additional certificates, qualifications or records related to instructor training, aviation safety or professional development.

What we offer:

- Flexible freelance cooperation;
- The opportunity to work with an experienced aviation training team;
- A dynamic and professional working environment;
- Cooperation based on your availability and qualifications.
