- Valid EASA Cabin Crew Attestation
- Strong background in customer service
- Medical Cabin Crew Certificate (or ability to obtain)
- Fluent in English
- Eligible to live and work in the EU

You Are:

- Ready to operate flights to diverse international destinations
- Naturally positive, adaptable, and professional under any circumstance

What We Offer:

- Training to master service and safety standards for VIP and ACMI operations
- Competitive fixed and variable pay, plus block hour payments
- Permanent contracts with stability and growth opportunities
- 10 or 8 consecutive days off
- Accommodation during duty
- Travel tickets provided to/from your base
- A truly international, multicultural working environment

Important: The Open Day is a LIVE, in-person event only – there will be no online screenings. Full details of the event will be shared closer to the date.

This is your chance to step into the world of elite aviation – where every flight is unique, every destination is an adventure, and every crew member is part of something extraordinary. Apply now and make your dream career take off with KlasJet.
